

Press Release F/W 2015_16

Supple yet flowing lightness come together in the new autumn/winter collection 15.16 of kleinbasel.

Ease

For every season designer Tanja Klein shows new surprising perspectives. She remains faithful to her principles: uncomplicated and easy combinable outfits with a clear and perfect cut. The high requirement for quality during the careful material selection is always at the center of attention. Kleinbasel combines traditional craftsmanship, quality and style.

Always soft and casual – this puts the individual style into the spotlight. A blouson as a blazer alternative combined with track pants or flared skirt results in a combination of an inspired new interpretation. It is a soft and relaxed, flattering silhouette with skilful implementation.

A 24 hour style portrays the black "2IN1" Overall from kleinbasel. The cut- inspired by casual men`s trousers and shirts – endows this liaison out of flowing material, modernity and makes this overall a perfect Day-to-Night-Dressing!

Warm winter coats or light indoor coats made out of longhaired Alpaca/pure new wool blend impersonate with a relaxed fit the same characteristic aesthetic.

The simple silhouette by draping or wrapping optic is perfect for flowing dresses or silk blouses. Fine knitwear and jersey style radiate comfortable chic. Dress, feel good, look great!

Clarity, charm and serenity blend into the colour range: black and dark blue provide clarity, charm stems from muted nude to taupe colours, and a discreet aubergine provides an exciting contrast. The serenity is reflected in the light effects of various material, on the print design „neo“ & „infinity“ and the consciously placed colour accents.

The exquisite leather quality and colour determines the main characteristic of the look. The colours black, dark blue and mouse reflect serenity and charm. The shimmering reflections in silver and gold provide suitability for the daily use as well as the glamorous look in the evening.
